MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

Mr. Helms:

Here, at last, is the text which we suggest you use at NSA next Monday afternoon when you appear as the "Principal Speaker" in the week-long program. This text was initiated in the Office of Security but it has been through a number of draftings and reflects reviews by and suggestions of Bronson Tweedy and [redacted] although we did not incorporate every point each made. We did not insert on page 4 as Bronson suggested a mention of Martin and Mitchell - he wondered if omission in speaking at NSA might not seem contrived while we feel that including them might seem like rubbing salt into a wound. Bronson also wondered if it might be better not to mention specific nationalities in making the point on page 3 about liaison services while we believe that examples might better make the point. We can adjust on these points and any others you may wish changed after you have had the opportunity to read the attached.

Also attached for your perusal are a copy of the NSA Newsletter featuring the forthcoming Security Week, a copy of the schedule for the week (which includes the OS/Tech Division demonstration on 10 November in addition to your appearance), and a list of prior year principal speakers.

As you know Admiral Gayler will be out of the country and Lou Tordella will therefore be your host at luncheon at 12:30 Monday. After lunch he also plans to introduce you to selected top NSA officers in his or Admiral Gayler's office. Lou will provide the introduction to your talk in the auditorium where some 450 senior NSA invitees will be present.
